Report on the Special Talk on IBPS Exam and Opportunities in Banking Sector

Date: 11th November 2024

Time: 10.00 am - 11.30 am

Venue: PESIAMS Seminar Hall

Organized by: Synthesis Forum, Department of Commerce and Management.

On 11th November 2024, PESIAMS hosted a special talk on career opportunities in the banking sector. The event, organized by the Synthesis Forum, Department of Commerce and Management aimed to provide students with valuable insights into the banking industry, its various roles, and the career prospects it offers.

Guest Speaker:

The talk was led by Mr. Hemanth Adhikari, CFA, FRM, Assistant General Manager, State Bank of India, RASMEC, Shivamogga, an experienced professional in the banking sector with over 23 years of expertise in Credit Management, Branch Administration, Retail Banking, Corporate Banking, Trade Finance. Mr. Hemanth Adhikaari led several initiatives to innovate deliveries on organisation priorities, making him highly knowledgeable in the field and well-equipped to guide students interested in pursuing careers in banking.

Key Points Covered:

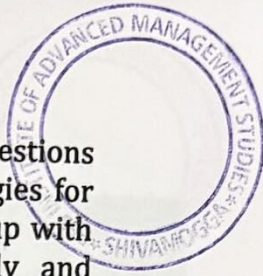

The session began with an introduction to the structure of the banking industry in India, covering the types of banks such as public, private, cooperative, and foreign banks and their primary functions.

The speaker elaborated on various roles within the banking sector, including those in retail banking, corporate banking, investment banking, and finance. He emphasized the scope for career growth, mentioning specific entry-level roles (like Bank PO, Clerk, etc.) and the path to higher positions like Branch Manager, Credit Analyst, and Investment Banker.

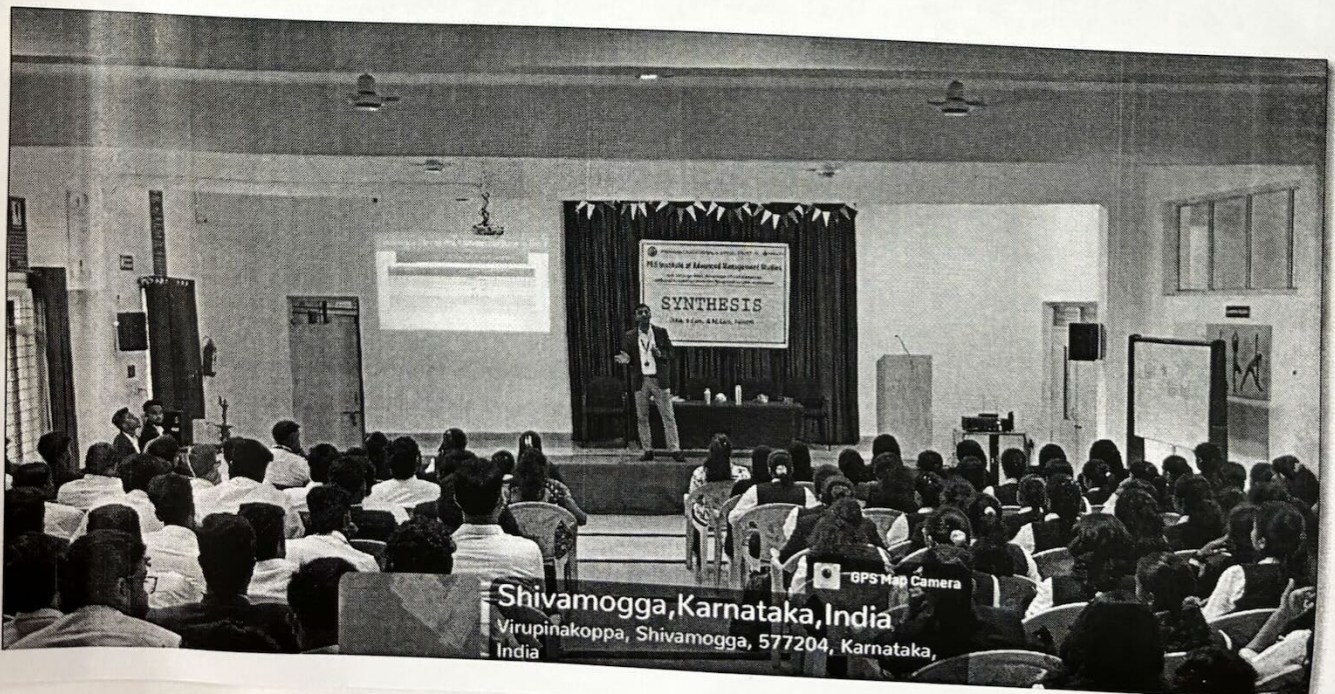

Mr. Hemanth Adhikari highlighted essential skills for success in banking, such as analytical skills, communication, financial literacy, and adaptability. The importance of soft skills and customer service was also stressed, as banking roles frequently involve direct client interaction. A significant portion of the talk was dedicated to preparing for banking exams. The speaker outlined the structure and syllabus of competitive exams like IBPS PO, SBI PO, and other bank exams. Tips on time management, understanding question patterns, and the importance of consistent practice were shared with students.

Question & Answer Session:

The session concluded with an interactive Q&A, where students asked questions regarding specific roles, how to stand out in the selection process, and strategies for long-term career success. Mr. Hemant Adhikari encouraged students to keep up with current financial news and trends, suggesting resources for further study and preparation.
