Report on "Cooking without Fire Competition"

Kalarava Forum organized "Cooking Without Fire Competition" for the students of PESIAMS on account of Navarathri Festival on 20-10-2023 from 03.00 pm to 05.00 pm at Seminar Hall.

Objectives of the event:

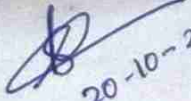

- To educate students on the basics of cooking without fire and its value.
- To enhance students' cooking skills and creativity.
- To encourage healthy eating habits.
- To foster a sense of independence in meal preparation

Outcome of the event:

The students actively took part in Cooking without Fire Competition. The students prepared variety of food and drinks. Few of the dishes like, bread chat, Cucumber Sushi, fruit Custard, salads, Bhel chat, Dahi Chat, etc., were served in the event. The Cooking Without Fire Competition was judged by Dr. Ganeshappa, Mrs. Aruna Nagaraj, and Mrs. Anitha C, Assistant Professor's of PESIAMS. The judgment was done by keeping multiple parameters in mind such as cleanliness, nutritional values of the food prepared, decorations etc. The active participation and enthusiasm of the students made this event possible and successful.

Based on the parameters for Judgment, following teams bagged the prizes:
