Report on Ethnic Day

Samskruti Sambhrama - A Tribute to the Farmers of India

Event Overview:

The Kalarava Forum at PES Institute of Advanced Management Studies (PESIAMS), Shivamogga, organized an Ethnic Day celebration titled "Samskruti Sambhrama" on the 6th of July, 2024 from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. The event, themed as a tribute to the farmers of India, aimed to honor and acknowledges the vital contributions of farmers to the nation's sustenance and economy.

The event was organized by the Kalarava Forum, a cultural committee within PESIAMS dedicated to promoting and preserving ethnic and cultural heritage.

Objectives of the event:

Samskruti Sambhrama was envisioned as a day to celebrate India's rich cultural diversity while paying homage to the hardworking farmers who play a crucial role in the country's agricultural sector.

The event aimed to:

- Promote awareness about the significance of agriculture and the challenges faced by farmers.
- Foster a sense of appreciation and respect for the farming community.
- Encourage the participation of students in cultural activities that reflect India's ethnic traditions.

Highlights of the Event

1. Cultural Performances: The event featured a variety of cultural performances, including traditional dances, folk music, and skits that depicted the life and struggles of farmers. These performances were aimed at showcasing the rich cultural heritage of different regions of India.

2. Ethnic Attire: Participants were encouraged to dress in traditional ethnic wear, adding to the festive atmosphere and allowing everyone to immerse themselves in the cultural experience.

3. Speeches and Tributes: participants shared insights on the importance of farming, the challenges faced by farmers, and the ways in which the younger generation can contribute to the agricultural sector. Tributes were paid to the farmers for their relentless efforts in ensuring food security.

4. Exhibition: An exhibition was set up displaying various agricultural tools, traditional farming methods, and products. This provided a platform for attendees to learn about the evolution of agriculture and the innovations that have transformed farming practices.

A total of 13 Sections participated in the event, each presenting their unique cultural performances and exhibits. The active involvement of these classes added to the vibrancy and success of the event.

To acknowledge and encourage the efforts of the participants, the event concluded with the announcement of the best performers. The performances were evaluated based on creativity, cultural representation, and overall impact.

The top three classes were awarded as the best event performers:

Winners:

1. First Place: M.Com
2. Second Place: III BBA 'A' Section
3. Third Place: III BCA 'B' Section

Conclusion:

Samskruti Sambhrama was a resounding success, bringing together students, faculty, and the farming community in a celebration of culture and agriculture. The event not only honored the invaluable contributions of farmers but also instilled a sense of pride and appreciation for India's diverse cultural heritage. Through such initiatives, PESIAMS continues to promote cultural awareness and social responsibility among its students and the broader community.

The enthusiastic participation and recognition of the classes involved added to the event's success, making Samskruti Sambhrama a memorable and impactful celebration.
