PG Department of Commerce

SANKALPA FORUM

Report on Participation in the Y20 Conclave

Introduction:

The Postgraduate Department of Commerce and the Research Cell of PESIAMS under the SANKALPA forum actively participated in the virtual international conference titled "Y20 Conclave." The event was hosted by S H Mutha College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Kalyan, and affiliated with Mumbai University, demonstrated a strong commitment to academic excellence by actively participating in the Y20 Conclave. A total of 54 M.Com students and 4 faculty members engaged in the conference, contributing their insights and research findings to the discussions. The conference took place on September 11, 2023, and served as a platform for in-depth discussions on pertinent issues related to Industry 4.0, particularly focusing on smart manufacturing and robotics.

Overview of the Y20 Conclave:

The Y20 Conclave is a prestigious international conference that brings together academicians, researchers, and students from around the world to deliberate on critical global issues. This year's theme centered around Industry 4.0, emphasizing the impact of smart manufacturing and robotics on various sectors of the economy.

Key Issues Discussed:

The Y20 Conclave featured a series of engaging sessions and panel discussions, with a primary focus on Industry 4.0. Key issues discussed during the conference included:

1. Smart Manufacturing: The transformation of traditional manufacturing processes into smart manufacturing systems was a central theme. Participants explored the integration of technologies like the Internet of Things (IoT), Artificial Intelligence (AI), and Big Data Analytics into manufacturing operations. Case studies and research findings were presented to highlight the benefits and challenges of adopting smart manufacturing practices.
2. Robotics in Industry 4.0: The role of robotics in reshaping industries was a major point of discussion. Experts and researchers shared their perspectives on the applications of robotics in various sectors, including manufacturing, healthcare, and logistics. The impact of robotic automation on efficiency, productivity, and workforce dynamics was thoroughly examined.
3. Sustainability and Industry 4.0: The conference also emphasized the importance of sustainability in the context of Industry 4.0. Presentations and discussions revolved around how smart manufacturing and robotics can contribute to sustainable practices, reduce environmental impact, and promote eco-friendly production methods.
4. Challenges and Opportunities: Participants had the opportunity to delve into the challenges that organizations face when transitioning to Industry 4.0 practices. These challenges included workforce adaptation, cyber security concerns, and the need for substantial investments in technology. Conversely, the conference also highlighted the vast opportunities that Industry 4.0 presents for businesses and economies.

Conclusion:

The virtual international conference, Y20 Conclave, provided a stimulating platform for the PG Department of Commerce and the Research Cell of PESIAMS to engage in thought-provoking discussions on Industry 4.0, smart manufacturing, and robotics. The active participation of M.Com students and faculty members reflected the institution's commitment to staying at the forefront of academic and research endeavors. The insights gained from this conference will undoubtedly contribute to the ongoing exploration of innovative practices in the field of commerce and Industry 4.0.

We extend our gratitude to S H Mutha College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Kalyan, and Mumbai University for hosting this enlightening event and look forward to future collaborations in the pursuit of academic excellence and knowledge dissemination.
