Report on "Swadeshi Food Mela Competition"

Department of Commerce and Management and Synthesis Forum organized "Swadeshi Food Mela Competition" for the students of PESIAMS on 28-06-2024 from 12.00 am to 03.00 pm at PCH Dining Hall.

Objectives of the event:

- To encourage the entrepreneurial skills among the students
- To learn more about Indian cuisine, beverages, origins and characteristics.
- To create awareness on the entrepreneurial opportunities and financial independence among the students

Outcome of the event:

The students actively took part in the Swadeshi Food Mela Competition. Dr. Nagaraja R, Chief Coordinator – Administration, PES Trust (R) inaugurated the food mela competition. The students offered a variety of authentic Indian food and drinks to the customers. Some of the Indian authentic dishes such as Roti, Bhel-puri, Pani-puri, Behrouz Biryani, Gulabjamoon, etc., were served at the event. In addition to the faculty and students of PESIAMS, faculty members and students from PESITM, PESPU, PES Public School and PES Polytechnic College attended the food mela as customers.

The Food Mela Competition was judged by Ms. Rosy Sequeria, Coordinator, PESPS and Ms. Manasa M B, Assistant Professor, Department of EEE, PESITM. The judgment was done by keeping multiple parameters in mind such as cleanliness, nutritional values of the food served, stall decoration, promotional strategies and taste.

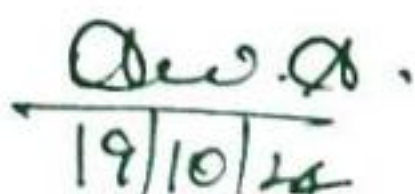

Based on the parameters for Judgment, following teams bagged the prizes:
